

2010 LAW STUDENT LEGAL WRITING CONTEST

SPONSORED BY THE INTERNATIONAL LAW SECTION,
STATE BAR OF TEXAS

SUBJECT

Entries should address any area of international law, including international antitrust, arbitration, business transactions, conflicts of law, criminal law, immigration, intellectual property, litigation, multinational enterprises, public law and trade law.

AWARDS

First Place:

- $1,000
- Consideration for publication in the Texas Transnational Law Quarterly
- Admission to the International Law Section's prestigious 23rd Annual International Law Institute, to occur in 2011
- Plaque

Second Place:

- $500
- Consideration for publication in the Texas Transnational Law Quarterly
- Admission to the International Law Section's prestigious 23rd Annual International Law Institute, to occur in 2011
- Plaque

Third Place:

- Copy of the International Law Section's Doing Business in Texas Guide
- Admission to the International Law Section's prestigious 23rd Annual International Law Institute, to occur in 2011
- Plaque

Honorable Mentions:

- Copy of the International Law Section's Doing Business in Texas Guide
- Plaque

ELIGIBILITY AND FORMAT

The author of an entry must be a law student in good standing at an American Bar Association-accredited law school during the 2009-10 school year. Eligible authors intending to submit an entry should go to www.ilstexas.org/itlg.htm to view past articles of the Texas Transnational Law Quarterly for examples of proper style for their entries. Entries should be three to ten double-spaced pages with one-inch margins on 8¹/₂" x 11" paper and conform to the style requirements of the Blue Book, 17th edition. The entry must be submitted (preferably by e-mail) with a cover letter listing the author's name, law school, expected year of graduation, current address (and if different, permanent address), and e-mail address. If a hard copy is provided, an electronic version of the article must nevertheless be provided. Only one entry per author will be accepted. All entries must be original, have only one author, and be of publishable quality. If the entry has been submitted for publication or published elsewhere, this must be stated in the letter together with details of when and where published. Entries may have been prepared for course credit or for journal submission. On submission, all entries will become the property of the International Law Section, State Bar of Texas and may become eligible for consideration to be published in the Texas Transnational Law Quarterly.

CRITERIA FOR AWARDS

Entries will be judged based on contribution to the international legal profession, analysis and research, timeliness, originality, proper spelling and grammar, and proper format. The International Law Section, State Bar of Texas reserves full discretion in its selection of entries for awards including (without limitation) the right to make no award if no entry, in its full discretion, is qualified or to limit the number or type of awards provided based on the quality of the entries.

DEADLINE

All entries must be (if e-mailed) received by or (if mailed) postmarked by May 31, 2010.

Entries should be sent to georgehumphrey@andrewskurth.com or to International Law Section, State Bar of Texas, c/o George Humphrey, Esq., Andrews Kurth LLP, 600 Travis, Suite 4200, Houston, Texas 77002. Address questions to George Humphrey.

Go to www.ilstexas.org for more information about the International Law Section, State Bar of Texas.