

CAREERS IN INTERNATIONAL LAW presentation

Friday, February 5, 2010 • 12:00–1:00 PM • Room TNH 3.142

---

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS
SCHOOL OF LAW
CAREER SERVICES OFFICE

AND

THE INTERNATIONAL LAW
SECTION, STATE BAR OF TEXAS

PROUDLY PRESENT

An informal talk by lawyers who practice international law.

Stephen D. Davis, Esq., ILS Chair and partner, Vinson & Elkins LLP, Houston, has served as Co-Chair of the firm's Middle East/North Africa Practice Group and practiced for the firm in Southeast Asia for 6.5 years.

Betty Ungerman, ILS Vice Chair and Chief IP Counsel of Lennox International, Dallas, practices international intellectual property and related business matters.

Alejandro (Alex) Cestero, Esq., ILS Secretary and General Counsel, Seahawk Drilling, Inc., Houston, practice includes international commercial transactions and ventures and general corporate law.

Martin Lutz, Esq., ILS Council Member and senior attorney of DuBois, Bryant & Campbell, L.L.P., Austin, practices international trade, transactions and compliance.

Carlo Romero, ILS Council Member and Legal Counsel, Wartsila North America, Inc., Houston, practices international business law, construction law and commercial dispute resolution.

Richard O. Faulk, ILS Council Member and partner, Gardere, Houston, practices international complex toxic tort and environmental litigation, including class actions and other "mass tort" cases involving multiple plaintiffs and defendants.

George Humphrey, Esq., head of Law Student Outreach and partner, Andrews Kurth LLP, Houston, practices international energy project development and finance, with a focus on Latin America.

Come learn the different paths each of the participants took out of law school to become international lawyers. Learn about what their practice is like (big firm, in-house and boutique) and learn the pros and cons of practicing international law.

The presentation will be informal with ample opportunity for questions and to meet the participants. If you are interested in international law, don't miss this presentation!

International Law Section
State Bar of Texas

---